

Eight Decades of Bruce

A Celebration and Symposium on Science Education and Science Policy

In honor of
Bruce Alberts'
80th Birthday

April 14-15, 2018

SATURDAY APRIL 14, 2018

Symposium on Science Education and Science Policy

Garden Room, Metropolitan Club, 640 Sutter Street, San Francisco

- 9:00a Guests arrive and register
- 10:00a Welcome and Introduction
Master of Ceremonies Gregor Eichele
- 10:10a Session 1 *How Do We Convey the Importance of Science in Schools and to the Public?
Moderator: Maureen Munn
Panelists: Janet Coffey, Will Colglazier, Janet English, Caroline Kiehle
- 12:00p Buffet Lunch
Served in the Garden Room
- 1:30p Session 2 *Innovations in Teaching and Learning in Higher Education
Moderators: Doug Kellogg and Kimberly Tanner
Panelists: Betty Kutter, Judy Miner, Sally Pasion
- 2:30p Break
- 3:00p Session 3 *Challenges Facing the Next Generation of Scientists
Moderators: Cynthia Fuhrmann and Bill Theurkauf
Panelists: Marc Kirschner, Barry Selick, Nolan Sigal
- 4:00p Break
- 4:30p Session 4 *Science Policy
Moderators: Mary Maxon and Jason Rao
Panelists: Bill Colglazier, Haile Debas, Donna Gerardi-Riordan, Keith Yamamoto
- 5:30p Duet for clarinet and viola: “Replication Machine”
Composed and introduced by Elaine Bearer
- 6:15p Reception
Metropolitan Club Bar — 4th Floor
- 7:00p Buffet Dinner
Metropolitan Club Main Dining Hall — 4th Floor

SUNDAY APRIL 15, 2018

Drop-in Brunch at Beth Alberts' Home

200 Edgehill Way, San Francisco 94127

10:00a – 2:00p

Beth's home is about halfway up Edgehill Way, and there is very limited parking, particularly due to some construction. Please consider carpooling, taking Lyft/Uber/taxi, or, if you are able, parking near the bottom of the hill and walking up.

Symposium poster represented on the first page is by Nigel Orme.